NEW YORK, August 31.—While seither gate receipts nor attendance figures are expected to be broken at the coming world series, baseball fans throughout the country are certain to watch the daily returns with more than the usual interest, owing to the changed conditions under which the series will be played. Two outstanding features are apparent which have not heretofore been faced by either the players or the magnates at any time in the history of the baseball classic. No such national or international crisis has ever prevailed during the playing of a world series as exists at this time. Under normal conditions the sinual class of the pennant-winning clubs of the rival major leagues has each season been one of the events of the year. The play was followed each day by hundreds of thousands of baseball enthusiasts in all parts of the country. Great cities and little hamlets in isolated sections of the continent have witnessed the daily gathering of throngs before the bulletin and player boards to follow the fortunes of the competing teams. To-day the mind of the public is burdened with great responsibilities and cares, and the world series at best can be but a momentary diversion. hroughout the country are certain to

MURRAY WILL PLAY TILDEN OR KUMAGAE FOR TITLE

Californian Wins Way to Final Round. His Rival to Be Ascertained Monday. [By Associated Press.]

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., August 31.— R. Lindley Murray, California, representing the Niagara Falls Tennis Club. won his way into the final round of the annual turf court championships here to-day, and Tuesday will meet either W. T. Tilden, Jr., of Philadelphia, or Ichiya Kumagae for titular honors Murray won his place in the final by defeating S. Howard Voshell, national indoor champion, of Brooklyn, 6-4, 6-3 5-6.

Kumagae advanced from the fifty round to the seminal at the expens of Lyle E. Mahan, winning at 4-6, 6-6 6-0, 6-1. Japanese will play Tilden o

Monday.

Conditions were far from favorable Conditions were far from favorable afternoon. The large Conditions were far from favorable for fast play this afternoon. The largest gallery of the week gathered for the two matches, however, and were rewarded by some spectacular playing. Murray easily held the upper hand in the first two sets, but with the match turning against him in the third set. Voshell litted his game to remarkable heights, and by taking desperate chances, in which fortune appeared to favor his play, ran into a lead of 4-2, it appeared as though the match would go into extra sets, but at this stage If appeared as though the match would go into extra sets, but at this stage Murray changed his tactics and anchored himself as the barrier, and by spread-eagling first at one side and then at the other, Murray's great ag lity and net smashing, combined with his service accing, finally gave him the lead at 7-6.

Kumagae's victory over Mahan was much more easily won. The tail New Yorker appeared utterly unable to control his strokes during the play, and the Japanese was not any better in the initial set, which Mahan won at 6-4.

Earlier in the day H. L. Taylor, of Brooklyn, won the junior national championship by defeating J. Hennes-sy, of Indianapolis, at 6-4, 6-2, 6-2.
